

Rick is in his tenth year of retirement after a long and varied professional career that took him all over Canada.

He believes in community and that everyone should contribute to the world around them, and that Bear Mountain is a wondrous place to live so he serves on the BMAC board to give back and help make Bear Mountain an even better place to live for all of us.

Rick is a father of six children and has seven grandchildren with more on the way.....family, friends and community are everything to him. He serves on a number of boards and volunteers for a number of organizations. He is very physically active every day and loves every moment with his lovely wife Lesley, they live a vigorous life and make the most of every day.
